SKETCH COMEDY WORKSHOP

For students in

HIGH SCHOOL

SKETCH COMEDY WORKSHOP provides students with the chance to let their creative juices flow and their imaginations to go wild! Participants engage in improvisation and theater games to explore ideas for plots and characters. The workshop concludes with an original presentation written and performed by the group. Perfect for the budding playwright, stand up comic or any student wishing to expand his/her own creativity in a performance-related art form. Directed by Diana Hird

A Word About Our Acting Program…"Want your child to have a quality theater experience? The Discovery Center has a long standing commitment to every child. Each child gets a speaking role and the opportunity to 'be' a character .. more than just 'being in the show' or one in a cast of thousands, our directors work with your child to develop acting skills in a nurturing environment that provides an ideal adult:child ratio."
